David Casavant CFM, LEED AP is the Executive Director at the Sustainable Workplace Alliance, a non-profit adult training organization.

In the last 15 years David has personally trained over 10,000 professionals in such difficult topics such as regulatory compliance and FM functions. He is a regular presenter and keynote speaker at dozens of industry conferences and trade shows. You’ll read his articles in your favorite trade magazines and he was awarded the Distinguished Author designation for his latest book Emergency Preparedness – A Guide to Safety Planning & Business Continuity.

David’s latest book is entitled Surviving the OSHA Audit – Common Sense Solution to Your Most Feared Compliance Issues is gaining wide recognition as the “go-to” resource for OSHA audit survival strategies.