Pam Cavanaugh – Environmental Services Supervisor - Orange County Convention Center

Pam has been at the Convention Center as the ES Supervisor since 9/29/97. With three shifts 7 days a week employing a staff of approximately 160, the focus is in keeping the facility clean and sustainable in regards to waste. Additionally, she is responsible for the Pest services, all waste generated at the 7 million square foot facility, and the Janitorial contract. Pam has commented that back in 1984 she took a part time job as a custodian in a high rise building in New York taking a break from Long Island University as Journalism major and thirty years later she is still in “toilets and trash”…..

Pam was instrumental in obtaining the ISO 14001, LEED, and APEX certifications at the Orange County Convention Center and continues to do the “right” thing in addition to the meeting of County Ordinances. With continual improvement in her realm of responsibilities so to retain and maintain the certifications she strives share her passion for cleaning and sustainability.
